

participation, ordering and stocking materials, arranging for tools, etc. The North American work with the National CIAD Coordinator to assist with: securing qualified tradesmen, soliciting The District North American Missions Director and the District Board shall be responsible to building that will seat approximately 100.

congregation must be able to show their need (i.e. financially, numerically, etc.) of a new best that the local church own their property (debt free), though this is not a requirement. The American Missions Board, and District North American Missions Director in the project. It is must have the approval, backing and participation of their District Board, District North Applicant eligibility is as follows: Congregation must be less than ten years old. Congregation alternative.

could be purchased for about the same or less money we encourage you to consider this church from the ground up. If you find a church or other suitable building in your area which Purchase of an existing building is considered an acceptable substitute to building a new church and/or district.

become available to the Division. All other costs involved will be the responsibility of the local North American Missions will make available Interest Free loans up to $20,000, as funds responsibility of the local church.